Fine Arts, University Transfer

The Fine Arts Department at Grande Prairie Regional College is a great place to start a career in the visual arts. This program offers a balance of hands-on studios and lecture-based courses. The curriculum is designed to prepare students for advanced studies at a university or an art institute. This is a four year program, with up to two years being completed at GPRC and remaining years being completed at the selected transfer institution.

FINE ARTS OFFERS:

- ▶ Small class sizes and large studio spaces
- ▶ Acclaimed, practicing artists as faculty
- ▶ Visitor in the Arts speaker series
- ▶ Opportunities to collaborate with other disciplines
- ▶ Dedicated public gallery for students

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- ▶ Passing grades and an overall average of 60% in the following Alberta Education courses. For course groups, refer to the Classification of Alberta Education Courses.
